Report of School Board.

The schools have, as a general rule, been prosperous through the year, although not what we would like some of them to be; yet these have not been total failures. Some glory in doing contrary to the board's wishes, and in sending where they please. Let every one take heed and try and help the board instead of finding fault and doing to the contrary. Let us remember the old maxim, "United we stand; divided we fall." Let us strive in the future to comply cheerfully with school requirements.
